A guide to help you

Here at Jordans, we believe that you should always receive your legal advice and services from professionals that are highly knowledgeable without it costing an arm and a leg. So, we offer our services at affordable prices and aim to offer the best prices in Doncaster and can guarantee to disclose all fees and disbursements when we provide you with our quote. This allows you to know the exact amount you will be paying and exactly what you expect to receive.

Planning your affairs could be due to several reasons such as a recent change in your life whether it be that you have entered into a new relationship, married or need to protect assets. The important thing is to make sure that your Will is legally valid. Regularly reviewing your Will ensures that you are aware of the latest laws that may affect your assets

By making a Will you can appoint who you wish to deal with your affairs when you pass away as well as where your money and property will go to and not who the government decides.

A Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) allows you to appoint someone you trust to deal with your affairs when you are no longer able, whether it be due to old age or a life-changing injury or illness . There are two types of LPA; Property & Financial and Health & Welfare which allows you to restrict it to a set area.

Most importantly, instructing on both your Will and an LPA allows you to receive a discount on our fees.
